2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents.

3. At the foremost, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that there is enormous delay in disposal of the representation of the detenu, which vitiates the ultimate order of detention. With reference to the above claim, learned Additional Public Prosecutor has placed the details, which show that the representation of the detenu dated 13.04.2006 was received by the Government on 17.04.2006 and remarks were called for on 18.04.2006 and the remarks were received by the Government on 25.04.2006 and the File was submitted on 26.04.2006 and the same was dealt with by the Under Secretary and Deputy Secretary on the same day i.e. on 26.04.2006 and finally, the Minister for Prohibition and Excise passed orders on 27.04.2006. The rejection letter was prepared on 10.05.2006 and the same was sent to the detenu on 12.05.2006 and served to him on 17.05.2006. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioner, though the Minister for Prohibition and Excise passed an order on 27.04.2006, there is no explanation at all for taking time for preparation of rejection letter till 10.05.2006. In the absence of any explanation by the person concerned even after excluding the intervening holidays, we are of the view that the time taken for preparation of rejection letter is on the higher side and we hold that the said delay has prejudiced the detenu in disposal of his representation. On this ground, we quash the impugned order of detention.

4. Accordingly, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned order of detention is set aside. The detenu is directed to be set at liberty forthwith from the custody unless he is required in some other case or cause.
